

GOULD'S PLANT WILL GO AHEAD

The Work Now Only Awaits Order From Judge
Waddill.

AN IMMENSE POWER DAM

Dr. McFaden Explains and Defends Royal Arcanum Increase.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
PETERSBURG, VA., June 21.—The big electric enterprise of the Goulds on the upper Appomattox only awaits consent of the courts to be put in active process of construction again.

An official of the Virginia Passenger and Power Company here said to-day that as soon as an order is obtained from Judge Waddill the canal and power house will be utilized. The big dam at the head of the canal, two miles from the power house, has never been completed, but under present conditions water can be introduced into the canal at a cost of about $25,000, and two or three hundred horse power generated at the power house.

The dam across the Appomattox, which is to be an immense structure, is very far from completion, work on it having been suspended by reason of the Fisher-Gould controversy.

Rev. Dr. F. J. McFaden, of Richmond, representative to the Supreme Council of the Royal Arcanum, explained and defended the recent action of the council in increasing the assessment rates to a joint meeting of the Sycamore and South-side Councils, of this city, at Old-Forlow's Hall last evening. The increase in assessments has been much discussed and criticized by the local members of the order, especially as to its alleged injustice to the older members.

No definite action was taken.
A beautiful and fashionable wedding took place at St. Paul's Episcopal Church this afternoon, when Miss Roberta Holling Gill, an exceedingly handsome and attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. German B. Gill, was married to Mr. Waverly Mintre, the ceremony was performed by the Rev. Robert H. Barwell, rector of St. Paul's. The bride was beautifully gowned and was escorted by her father to the altar, where she was met by the groom and his brother, Mr. J. Les Mintre.
The best man, Miss Anne Banister Gill, sister of the bride, and the bridesmaids were Miss Mary Eldridge Beasley and Miss Mary Goode Cole. In the wedding march, the bridesmaids preceded the usher, who were Messrs. J. M. Gill, Harold Mintre, P. H. Drewry, Frank Hobbs, John Arthur Johnston, Bartlett Roper, Jr., Thomas M. Davis, Joseph W.
Smith, J. Leslie Watson and James W.
Payne, of Norfolk.

Mr. Waverly Mintre, the groom, is one of the most popular young business men in this city.

Augusta Primary.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
STAUNTON, VA., June 21.—The County Democratic Committee to-day fixed August the first as the date for holding the primary for the election of candidates for Senator from the Ninth District, and two candidates for the House of Delegates from Augusta County and Staunton. Each candidate was assessed twenty dollars.
The Electoral Board appointed 180 judges and clerks for the six districts.

Barrett Nominated.

Newport News Election Officers Were Counting All Night.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NEWPORT NEWS, VA., June 21.—It was 4 o'clock this morning before the vote in yesterday's Democratic primary was counted. W. E. Barrett was nominated for the House of Delegates, and the following ticket was nominated: Freeman, J. M. Curtis, clerk of court; D. G. Smith, city sergeant; E. W. Mil-stead; commissioner of revenue, B. W.
Crump; Commonwealth's attorney, C. W.
Robinson; constable, C. W. Mugler.
All the city officials are for re-election.
The Democratic City Committee has decided to bear the expense of the primary, instead of calling on the State Committee for funds for that purpose.
William Johnson, a carpenter, employed on one of the new buildings under construction at Fort Monroe, fell forty feet from a scaffold, in which he was working, escaping serious injury almost miraculously. He turned while in the air and struck on his side. He will be out in a few days.

Storm Was Severe.

Dwelling Struck and Entire Family Knocked Senseless.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
LURAY, VA., June 21.—Late reports of the damage done by the storm in the northern part of this county show that the destruction is widespread and in many instances gardens will have to be planted over. Lightning struck the dwelling house of John T. Turner, near the base of the mountain, partially destroying the building and knocking senseless every member of the family. Mrs. Turner it was thought for some time could not survive the shock.
The dwelling house belonging to Richard Campbell, near the Luray Caverns was also struck by lightning and damaged. Another wind and rain storm of almost equal severity of yesterday visited Luray and Springfield districts this evening, the rain falling in sheets. The storm later cleared almost completely the work of destruction begun yesterday.

NOT MALICIOUS, BUT UNJUSTIFIED

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
CULPEPER, VA., June 21.—The last act in the public school imbroglio here, in which Mr. T. W. Hendricks, principal of the Culpeper graded school, was accused of maliciously and unlawfully whipping little Kenard, the twelve-year-old son of Roy J. W. Ware, rector of the Episcopal Church here, was played and the curtain rung down on a long drawn out contest. Late this afternoon the following telegram from Mr. A. D. Hall, the gentleman sent here by the State Board of Education to try the case, was received: "Punishment not malicious, but unjustified. Opinion in extenuation when I return."
(Signed) "M. D. HALL."

DEAF AND DUMB GIRL'S EVIDENCE

Tells in Whiting of Raleigh B.
Dawson's Treatment
of Her.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) LYNCHBURG, VA., June 21.—The unique situation of a deaf and dumb girl giving her evidence against a man charged with attempting criminal assault upon her by writing her answers in response to questions by the Commonwealth's attorney, was presented in the Police Court this morning, when Raleigh B. Dawson, a Pittsylvania farmer, was given a hearing on the charge of attempting to assault Beattie Shelton, the deaf and dumb daughter of C. A. Shelton, a neighbor of the accused here last week.
Dawson was held for the grand jury at the June term of the Corporation Court.

TERRIFIC STORM VISITS CHESTER

Balls of Fire Explode and Shock Several Citizens.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) CHESTER, VA., June 21.—One of the severest electric storms that has occurred for years passed over this place yesterday afternoon. A large tree very close to Mr. G. E. Robertson's house was struck, sending a heavy limb to the ground and shocking members of the family and leaving behind a strong sulphur odor.

THE CLOSING DAY AT THE INSTITUTE

Graduating Exercises in Stonewall Jackson Hall.

GOVERNOR DELIVERS ADDRESS

Long List of Full Graduates.
Conferring of Jackson-Hope Medals.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) LEXINGTON, VA., June 21.—A most successful year at the Virginia Military Institute was brought to a close to-day.
The graduating exercises were held in the Stone Wall Jackson Memorial Hall in the presence of a large and enthusiastic audience. Conspicuous among the auditors were many beautiful commencing girls, gathered from various States, to lend the presence of their charming individuality to scenes enhanced by brilliant uniforms and soldierly bearing of the gallant young men assembled at the "West Point of the South."
